

First Supplement to Memorandum 2009-27

Nonsubstantive Reorganization of Deadly Weapon Statutes (Comments on Tentative Recommendation)

The Commission has received comments from Jeff Amador of the California Department of Justice. This supplement discusses his comments, which are attached as Exhibit page 1.

Also attached is a new draft of the disposition table, together with a supplemental disposition table. These items are discussed after Mr. Amador's comments.

Comments of Jeff Amador

Mr. Amador writes that the Commission "has done an exceptional job in reorganizing the Deadly Weapon statutes." Exhibit p. 1. It is encouraging to receive this positive input.

The remainder of Mr. Amador's comments pertain to proposed Penal Code Section 27910, which relates to target shooting. At pages 5-7 of Memorandum 2009-27, the staff recommends that the version of proposed Penal Code Section 27910 in the tentative recommendation be replaced with a new version that more closely tracks the existing language in Section 12078(h).

Mr. Amador would prefer to have the Commission stick with the version in the tentative recommendation:

I think the commission should keep its tentative recommendation on proposed Section 27910 rather than the new version under consideration. While both versions are an improvement to the current law, the initial version is structured in a manner that provides more clarity than the new version. The commission's concern regarding the ambiguity of the phrase "if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization" is unwarranted. Undoubtedly, the phrase means the loaned firearm must remain on the premises during the loan period.

Perhaps an argument could be made that the phrase means the loaned firearm must always remain on the premises. Thus, even after the loaned firearm is returned to the owner, it must remain on the premises. Of course this would be a ludicrous interpretation. Under such an interpretation, if the owner removed the firearm from the premises after the loan (and return), the completed loan would no longer be exempt. Ultimately, this is a non-issue because such an interpretation is not affected by either version. Neither version supports nor hinders such an interpretation.

The thrust of Mr. Amador's comments is that there is no significant ambiguity in the phrase "if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization." The staff agrees with him on this point.

Our concern about the version in the tentative recommendation is different and perhaps we should have articulated it more clearly. Existing Section 12078(h) provides:

(h) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 and subdivision (b) of Section 12801 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm to a person 18 years of age or older for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(Emphasis added.) The staff's concern centers on what the italicized phrase is meant to modify.

Specifically, does the italicized requirement apply only when a loan occurs "on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private"? Or does the requirement also apply when a loan occurs "on the premises of a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license"?

The version of proposed Section 27910 in the tentative recommendation assumes the latter view is correct. It provides:

27910. (a) Section 27545 does not apply to the loan of a firearm to a person 18 years of age or older for the purposes of shooting at targets if either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(a) The loan occurs on the premises of a target facility that holds a business or regulatory license and the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range.

(b) The loan occurs on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, and the firearm is at all times kept on the premises of the club or organization.

Comment. Section 27910 continues former Section 12078(h) without substantive change, as that provision applied to former Section 12072(d).

See Section 16520 (“firearm”).

(Emphasis added.)

We think this is the most probable interpretation of Section 12078(h), but we are not certain that it is correct. There are also other ambiguities in that section, such as determining what the phrase "whether public or private" is supposed to modify. That is why we suggested sticking more closely to the existing language, so as to avoid any risk of a substantive change. We continue to believe that is the wisest course for the Commission to take in the context of this nonsubstantive study.

As discussed in Memorandum 2009-27, the possibility of clarifying the existing language should be added to the Commission’s list of “Minor Clean-Up Issues for Possible Future Legislative Attention.” Then the meaning of that language could be resolved in a separate study, and the statute revised accordingly, without potentially jeopardizing the nonsubstantive reorganization project.

Supplemental Disposition Table

At pages 435-461, the tentative recommendation contains a disposition table, which shows the proposed disposition of every provision that would be recodified. In many cases, the disposition of a provision is complicated, because it would be divided into a number of smaller sections and reorganized, such as by placing the definitions in “Division 2. Definitions” instead of with the substantive material.

The disposition table would show the precise disposition of each piece of a provision. For example, the table would show that existing Section 12305 would be recodified as follows:

12305(b) .....	18900(b)
12305(c) .....	18900(c)
12305(d) .....	18900(d)
12305(e) .....	18905
12305(f)-(g) .....	18910

But the disposition table would not expressly state that the entirety of Section 12305 would be recodified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 18900) of Chapter 1 of Division 5 of Title 2 of proposed new Part 6. Similarly, the disposition table would not expressly state that the entirety of Section 12072 would be recodified in Article 2 (commencing with Section 27500) of Chapter 4 of Division 6 of Title 4 of Part 6, which is the same as Sections 27500 to 27590, inclusive.

The staff believes that information like this might be useful to include in the Commission's report.

It would be difficult, however, to incorporate such information into the current two-column format of the disposition table. We therefore prepared a draft of a supplemental disposition table, which would show these kinds of dispositional information. We also revised the existing disposition table to (1) make the corrections noted in Memorandum 2009-27, (2) include a few new or modified entries, and (3) cross-reference the supplemental disposition table where appropriate. To facilitate review, all of the revised entries are shown in boldface.

The Commission and interested persons should review the attached drafts of the disposition table and supplemental disposition table and determine whether they are acceptable.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Gaal
Chief Deputy Counsel

WEBSITE FEEDBACK FORM FROM JEFF AMADOR
(MAY 27, 2009)

The Commission has done an exceptional job in reorganizing the Deadly Weapon Statutes.

I think the commission should keep its tentative recommendation on proposed Section 27910 rather than the new version under consideration. While both versions are an improvement to the current law, the initial version is structured in a manner that provides more clarity than the new version. The commission's concern regarding the ambiguity of the phrase "if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization" is unwarranted. Undoubtedly, the phrase means the loaned firearm must remain on the premises during the loan period.

Perhaps an argument could be made that the phrase means the loaned firearm must always remain on the premises. Thus, even after the loaned firearm is returned to the owner, it must remain on the premises. Of course this would be a ludicrous interpretation. Under such an interpretation, if the owner removed the firearm from the premises after the loan (and return), the completed loan would no longer be exempt. Ultimately, this is a non-issue because such an interpretation is not affected by either version. Neither version supports nor hinders such an interpretation.
